STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1899, 10 A. M.

NO. 71

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

In Laurel county George Johnson shot and killed John Vaughn.

Mrs. F. Warren and grandchild, of Rockcastle, were bitten by their house dog which went mad.

At Corbin Herman Bradshaw was accidentally shot and perhaps fatally wounded by Rollie White.

Fred Rhodes, of the Orlando section of Rockcastle, accidentally shot himself the other day and is in a bad fix.

Sixteen witnesses have been taken from Laurel county to Manchester to testify in the Thacker murder case.

Mr. T. C. Adams, editor of the Richmond Pantagraph, has been appointed storekeeper and gauger by Collector Yerkes.

Fearing that she would be murdered if she testified, Mrs. Sarah Collins, a witness in the feud cases in Clay county, took poison and died.

John the Baptist Carter, now of Danville, but who used to live at Rowland, was arrested in Louisville for passing counterfeit money, but was acquitted.

W. D. Clark, of Somerset, was perhaps fatally injured in a wreck on the Big Four, near Guilford, Ind. Two men were killed and 15 cars of freight destroyed.

Near Albany, Sam Lawrence shot and probably fatally wounded J. A. Tompkins. The pistol used was a .45 Colt. The trouble occurred at Tompkins' home and came up over some whisky.

At Oldway church, in Laurel county, during preaching a fight came up between Leonard and Scott McFadage, Henry Doan and others. Leonard McFadage was shot by Henry Doan; it is believed fatally.

The large plant of the Southern lumber company, at Valley View, owned and operated by Cincinnati parties, and employing 100 men, was closed by sheriff's attachment as a result of a damage suit for $16,166. The suit was filed by A. B. Asher and other Eastern Kentucky log men.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Rev. J. A. Francis, of Winchester, will begin a protracted meeting at Walnut Flat at 6:30 Monday evening, Nov. 13.

Rev. J. B. Crouch will be assisted in a meeting at the Baptist church, which begins Nov. 12, by Rev. H. H. Tibbs of Williamsburg.

Prof. Arthur C. McGiffert, of the Union Theological Seminary, declines to resign, and it now seems certain that this Presbyterian divine will be tried for heresy.

Rev. A. M. Lambert, in charge of the Woodbine circuit, says he assisted Rev. Thompson in a meeting at Kingsville, which did great good, though there were no additions. He further says that Mr. Thompson, with his excellent wife, seem to be very popular among the people. A parsonage is being built and he believes a splendid year will follow and the church will take a material step forward.

The Houses of Reform are now open. Gov. Bradley issued the following Oct. 31: "Public notice is hereby given that the Kentucky Houses of Reform will be open for the reception of inmates on the first day of November, 1899. Believing that the children now confined in the penitentiary should be given the preference, 60 of them will be transferred on that day. Owing to delay in obtaining material necessary to complete the buildings, no greater number can be received before Dec. 1, 1899."

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE.
Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Penny, Drugist.

Eld. J. G. Livingston writes: "We had a double wedding at Mr. Hiatt Stigall's last night in which his daughter, Miss Allie, was married by myself, to Mr. E. D. Kennedy, and his daughter Miss Helen, was married to Mr. J. W. Hunter. A sumptuous feast was prepared and a grand time in general was had. The brides live in Garrard county and are beautiful girls."

USED BY BRITISH SOLDIERS IN AFRICA.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Gasho. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

WEAK EYES ARE MADE STRONG.
Don't vision made clear, styles removed and granulated lids or sore eyes of any kind speedily and effectually cured by the use of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It's put up in tubes, and sold on a guarantee. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.

An oyster trust is being organized the East.

LANCASTER.

Mr. Ed Norris has taken charge of his meat store and says that he has come to stay.

Elder C. E. Powell was not well enough to conduct the protracted meeting at Perryville.

Our band, the bar and the people generally will turn out Friday evening to meet Gov. Bradley.

J. N. Denny, Price Bros. and others have lost a number of cattle by the disease known as black leg.

Senator Harris is at home until after the election. He is in good spirits and estimates Goebel's plurality at 41,000. R. A. Stone is in Louisville attending Prof. Myers' lectures on embalming. He will also buy furniture to increase his stock during his stay.

Mr. A. J. House and Miss Annie, daughter of Robert Austin, were married Tuesday, Rev. Robinson, of the Methodist church, officiating. Elder Goken's meetings at Pleasant Grove have resulted, so far, in 19 additions, and, at times, the grounds have been unable to get in the house.

Capt. Louis Landrum's handsome face, and his reasons for becoming an editor, constituted one of the most attractive features of the Louisville Times of last Monday.

Mr. E. D. Kennedy and Miss Allie Stigall, Mr. J. W. Hunter and Miss Helen Stigall were married on Wednesday. The brides are sisters, and daughters of Mr. Hyatt Stigall.

The advantages of water works have been fully set forth, and there is no doubt about the proposition carrying if the excitement, over other matters, doesn't cause many to forget to vote on that question.

A good audience heard Hon. Alf. Taylor Wednesday night, and his lecture was high grade, each sentence containing a gem of thought, clothed in the most beautiful language. Prof. Patterson gets a benefit from the lecture for the library of Lancaster Graded School.

John Ray and George Aldridge, two young colored men, quarreled over a game and the former shot the latter through the right lung. Ray gave himself over to the police judge and was placed under a bond of $100. Aldridge is not dangerously wounded.

Eph Engleman was arrested on Monday evening for a breach of the peace. He has not been tried yet, and his friends hope that he will never be guilty of an offense again, that will cause him to be arrested, as he knows better and is competent to do well and make a worthy citizen.

I have a letter from Col. W. S. Miller, now of Knoxville. He sends greeting and good wishes to the boys generally, and democrats especially. He predicts a victory for Goebel, and says, "That noblest of all democrats, W. P. Walton, has certainly done his part in this campaign, as he always does." C. W. Anderson says that Goebel's plurality will be just three times that of Gov. Bradley's, which was 8,912. This will elect Mr. Goebel by 26,736. R. E. Thompson offers to bet $200 to $100 that Goebel will be elected. If Taylor is elected I am to cut Mr. C. D. Powell's winter kindling and if Goebel is elected he is to do that work for me. I propose to take a much needed rest.

A large crowd attended the funeral of Mr. W. R. Jennings on Tuesday afternoon and Eld. R. M. Campbell paid a deserving tribute to one of the best citizens in the county. He was a man of whom everybody spoke well and everybody was his friend. The Knights of Pythias conducted the burial and the floral offerings were profuse and beautiful in design. He was a member of Hughes Tent K. O. T. M., in which he carried a protection of $1,000. He also had a paid up policy in the New York Life Insurance Company.

Mr. J. I. Hamilton received a letter from Burgin stating that there are about 25 negroes in Davis Town, this county, who have been in Indiana all the summer and who have come here to vote and return to that State. Mr. H. will have this matter attended to as they may be illegal voters. The democrats had better watch everywhere for such importations, as they frequently occur and they are manipulated by the immaculate, who cry out against the Goebel law, which was made to prevent the perpetration of such frauds.

Judge T. Z. Morrow had a fairly good crowd on Monday, and proclaimed that he was a republican from Lincoln to McKinley; that he fought to free the Negroes and that he is speaking now to free both black and white from the shackles of the Goebel law. He paid a handsome tribute to the grand old democratic party and said that he had done much good for the country, which was the best thing he said, but he claimed that such a party does not exist to-day, but that it is an aggregation of Goebels and Brownites. The judge is certainly an orator, but, like all of his party, he seems to fear that the Goebel law will prevent fraud. Capt. Herndon presented him to the crowd and said that the cause of his success as a circuit judge was the fact that he had a good commonwealth attorney, who was the captain.

REV. GEO. O. BARNES AT DANVILLE.

Under date of Nov. 1, Bro. Barnes writes:

DEAR WALTON:—I get along here just as I did in Stanford and Somerset. The rigid church folk let me, serenely, alone. A goodly number, however, attend, and are interested in the "New Departure," for which I am very thankful. On the whole, I am glad Marie is not with me. I would rather bear the brunt of opposition alone, than to have her faithful heart wounded by the inevitable loss of old friends, while making new ones. She resents anything like a slight to me, so keenly; and feels so acutely the dropping off of those who once followed us for the Truth's sake; that I am glad she is so engrossed in her house full of boarders, as to leave little time to think of anything else, beyond the care of feeding them three times a day. When her lease runs out, next May, she will join me; by which time I hope to have secured such a foothold for "my gospel," that the further journey, in propagating it, will be, comparatively, "a way of pleasantness."

I say "my gospel" in no arrogant sense. Paul said it, and I only repeat his words. They point to the simple fact, that in preaching "Christ's gospel," every man inspired by the Holy Ghost to preach it, has some particular form of it, committed to him; so as to characterize it as his, and no one else's. Any careful study of the history of preaching, in all ages, brings this fact out clearly. "Grace" is so "manifest," that there is no danger of the plentitude of its "riches" running short; so that those "sent of God" will outnumber the supply of special features, and be compelled to follow somebody else's track of thought.

Of course this don't apply to those unfortunate who are sent out of Theological Seminaries, with the narrower commission to teach only what they have been taught, and on no account to ventilate any additional facts the Holy Spirit may impart. If they do, they will be "fired," as good Dr. Whitsett was; and as the healed blind man of John 9:34 was. But for the discovery of facts, that I, in my inexperience, supposed all seekers after Truth would welcome, gladly; and which I accordingly began to preach, I would be preaching Presbyterianism today. Instead of "God is Love and Nothing Else." Happily for me, as I now see (though I thought it an awful catastrophe, at the time) my brethren made it so hot for me, that I had to get out, in order to lead a peaceful life.

The way things now are, any preacher who can say with Paul, "my gospel," will have trouble over it, "bonds and afflictions," of some sort, "abide him, wherever he goes." I don't write bitterly. Why should I, when the preaching of "my gospel" will bring the guardian of "Blessed are ye when men shall persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you, falsely, for my sake. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven." I try to keep my eye on the end of "my ministry" and not on its present, (at times,) unpleasant accompaniments. Ever in Jesus, "BRO. BARNES."

P. S. I. I didn't start out to write anything but a notice of change of address on the I. J. You see where my pen ran to. If you like you may print my letter. Affly, "Bro. B."

2. No light yet on where I am going next. I will probably preach until Sunday night and deliver my lectures Monday and Tuesday nights and leave on Wednesday, whither the dear Lord may lead.

We hold services in the Opera house, the court house is absorbed by political contestants till after the election.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; none come out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

SAUNDERS--ALCORN.—A beautiful ceremony was that which joined the lives of Hon. James N. Saunders and Miss Annie Alcorn at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening, and it was witnessed by a crowd that began to gather shortly after 6 and which packed the building to the walls. The early comers had to wait several hours for it was not till after 8:40 that the bridal party was announced. Before the arrival, Mrs. R. P. Adams sang "Oh, Promise Me" to an organ accompaniment by Mrs. H. J. McRoberts and a violin obligato by Miss Isabella Bailey and the performance of each of the ladies was highly complimented. Mrs. Adams' singing being especially praiseworthy. Miss Bailey's violin rendition of "In Old Madrid" was also most artistic. The church had been beautifully prepared, the pulpit being banked with palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums, and the whole lit up with many candles. Behind this bank of beauty was the organ almost shut from view of the audience. A floral umbrella, draped with smilax, was suspended, under which the contracting parties took the vows to love and cherish each other till death shall part.

At 8:40, Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the arrival of the bridal party. Down the right aisle came Miss Kate Alcorn, followed by Miss Bessie Pennington. Then Miss Louise Saunders and immediately in front of the bride, who leaned on the arm of her brother, Kendrick Alcorn, came the maid of honor, Miss Pattie Alcorn. The brides were all in white, except the one of honor, who was attired in green and all carried chrysanthemums. The bride was dressed in a magnificent white satin, on train, with the bridal veil falling gracefully over her well poised head and shoulders. The ushers, Messrs. A. S. Price, Alfred A. Higgins, R. G. Denny and P. M. McRoberts, came down the left aisle, meeting the ladies at the chancel where they crossed over remaining on opposite sides. The groom leaning on the arm of his best man, Mr. Alexander Robinson, of Louisville, and Revs. Miles Saunders and S. M. Rankin met the party at the chancel and the brother having given the bride to her future husband, the ceremony was said by Mr. Saunders, the father of the groom, whose touching words to "my son, James," and "my daughter, Annie," brought tears to many eyes. A prayer by Mr. Rankin completed the ceremony and the party left the church, the ladies and gentlemen pairing, to the strains of the wedding march, for the home of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Alcorn, the parents of the bride, where the bridal party and some intimate friends enjoyed a reception, and a supper prepared by Gilcher, of Danville. Several hours were spent in general enjoyment and Mr. and Mrs. Saunders drove to Junction City, where they took the train for Louisville and then to New York, from whence they will sail today for Europe to be gone six weeks.

The union of this popular young couple is sure to be a happy one. They have been lovers for a long time and know each other well and how to add the most to the happiness of the other. The bride is a highly accomplished and lovely woman and the excitement of the ceremony heightened her beauty and made her an ideal bride in every way. The groom is a rising young lawyer, bright and ambitious, and having chosen a helpmeet so thoroughly in accord with him in all his hopes and aspirations, he is bound to make a success of life. Wishing them bon voyage on the night Atlantic as well as through life, the INTERIOR JOURNAL extends its warmest congratulations and joins their many friends in hoping for them that they will

It is all over, so far as this paper is concerned, but the shouting and we expect to do that in due season. We have done our best to keep democrats to line and if after all our appeals and arguments enough of them go astray to elect Taylor, which God forbid, it will not be our fault and we at least shall have a clear conscience. After hearing Taylor speak, we are more than ever convinced of his unfitness for any office, much less the highest in the State. He is uncouth, ill-mannered and illiterate, and the more he exhibits himself and his ignorance over the State, the larger will be Goebel's majority. He certainly can make no votes for himself or his cause except among the ignorant and vicious. Machine republicans and most Negroes would vote for him, however, were he ten times as unworthy, and nothing can change them. To them we have made no appeal, and will not. They are joined to their idols and would not be reasoned with though one arose from the dead. It is to thoughtful and sensible people that we appealed and still appeal to line up for Goebel and the democratic ticket and avert the calamities that the election of a fool like Taylor would bring upon the fair name of the State. Stamp your stencil under the rooster as shown above and help us redeem old Kentucky by placing her again where she belongs, in the democratic column.

No democrat can excuse himself from voting for Hon. C. C. McChord for railroad commissioner, on account of irregularity in his nomination. He was nominated at Frankfort and there has been no one to charge that he is not the nominee of the democratic party. Bolters and all who have any idea of party fealty are bound to vote for him. Every true democrat will simply make his cross in the square around the rooster and at his feet and that will take them all in.

EVERYTHING seems to be going Dewey's way. He has a life salary of $13,000, is sure of $50,000 for destroying Montej's fleet at Manila, has just been given a $50,000 house in Washington and now he is to marry the rich widow of Gen. Hazen, late Chief Signal officer of the army, and a sister of Editor John R. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer. Good things not only rain but pour upon the favored son of fortune.

Nor even the meanest opponent of the democratic ticket has had aught to say against a single member of it except Mr. Goebel, whom they have libelled, traduced and vilified without stint or measure. If you are foolish enough to believe the lies of hired liars, what's the matter with voting for the rest of the ticket if you cannot swallow the head?

It is said that Deboe and Senator Lindsay have formed an alliance to beat Gov. Bradley's friend, John W. Yerkes, for U. S. Senator, but this seems a waste of effort. Old Jo Blackburn will settle the matter by walking off with the plum.

GREAT interest is felt in the Nebraska election and the republicans are moving earth and hell to carry it, because Mr. Bryan has made the expansion question the leading one of the campaign. The chances, however, favor Bryan.

As goes Kentucky Tuesday so she is likely to go in 1900. Make it absolutely certain for Bryan by voting the democratic ticket from top to bottom.

THE Courier-Journal openly charges that the L. & N. is massing and drilling its men there and elsewhere and is on lookout for trouble on election day, and it advises the management to desist before it is too late. This good advice ought to be taken. It was hard enough before this campaign for that railroad to secure an impartial jury. Hereafter it will be at the mercy of juries, which will always find some excuse to find against it. The attempt of that corporation to control the election and secure the defeat of Goebel will cost it many millions of dollars.

HON. M. F. NORTH has made an open and manly fight for the Legislature and has not been afraid to tell how he stands on all questions. He has not dodged the issues, nor run in the dark places with a jack-o-lantern. Everybody knows what he will do if returned to Frankfort. He will work for the interest of his people and those of the entire State. Let us re-elect him by a rousing majority.

THE Taylor special train business was a flat failure everywhere, as far as crowds were concerned. Even in that hotbed of republicanism, London, the Kentuckian says the crowd only numbered about 130, the majority of which were the scholars from the seminary, who by chance had a republican teacher.

It seems that the "Old Corn Doctor," the so-called Senator Deboe, has been studying law during the moments he was not sleeping at the capital. Leastwise he got license from the court of appeals to practice, Wednesday. A jack at all trades seems to be his aspiration.

We still say and are willing to back it with ducats that Brown will not get 5,000 votes in the State. It is Goebel or Taylor and few will be foolish enough to throw their votes away on Brown.

GOEBEL is as sure to be elected next Tuesday as the day comes. Mark the prediction and you will see it verified.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

John W. Yerkes, the republican leader, has announced as a candidate for United States Senator to succeed Lindsay.

Gov. Bradley appointed Lawson Reno city judge of Owensboro to succeed Judge F. H. Roberts, recently declared insane.

James P. Harris, a former county judge of Floyd county, has repudiated the Brownies, with whom he has been affiliated, and has come out for Goebel.

The law provides that the governor shall take his seat the fifth Tuesday after election, Dec. 12th. Other State officers will not go in till the first Monday in January.

A dispatch in the Louisville Dispatch says that 3,000 people joined in singing "America" at Mt Vernon when the Taylor special struck the town. Other reports estimate the crowd at 300.

Before the court of appeals, Judge Charles Helm, of Covington, and Senator Deboe said that, unless the Brown bolters were allowed inspectors at the polls next Tuesday, there would be bloodshed.

Judge Parker at Lexington decided that Judge W. L. Brown and not Judge H. C. Eversole is the judge of the circuit in which Clay county is located. The court of appeals will now tackle the question.

Ex-Gov. Alvin Saunders died Wednesday at Omaha. He was a native of Kentucky, and was the first governor of Nebraska after that State was admitted to the Union, serving previously as Territorial governor.

When you hear the blathering Deboe spouting about the blood he is going to slosh around on election day just best a toy balloon and see him emulate the feat of the cow that jumped over the moon.—Louisville Times.

The republicans at Washington are making a great show of confidence in republican success in Ohio, Kentucky, Maryland and Nebraska. They are offering bets at two to one on Ohio and even money on the other States.

About bloodshed on election day; there will be no bloodshed unless it be precipitated by organized ruffianism directly ascribable to the campaign of money set on foot to beat the regular democratic ticket.—Courier Journal.

The wisdom of the situation for the independent nonpartisan voter is to discount the objections and to vote the regular democratic ticket. Even as a choice of evils, it promises less evil than a machine-made republican ticket equally demurrable on account of its antecedents and belongings, but very much worse for the smell of railroad grease that exudes from every pore and cranny. No sensible man will vote for Brown and no wise one will vote for Taylor, unless he be a believing dyed-in-the-wool republican.—Courier-Journal.

The Security Safety Vault and Trust company, assignee, has issued a statement saying that all claims against the banking house of D. A. Sayre & Co., of Lexington, which failed last week, will be paid in full immediately. This includes depositors.

There is a rumor that the L. & N. railroad is to handle its own express business after the beginning of the new year.

It is not known what caused the trouble. Smith waived his examining trial and was held in bond by Squire W. A. Coffey to circuit court.

"POLITICS is somewhat mixed in my country and it is mighty hard to tell whether democrats or republicans will win," telephoned Harry Giovannoli from Danville this morning. "C. C. Bagby will lose a few votes on account of John W. Yerkes coming out for U. S. Senator, but of course the democrats will work the harder. The race between Graham Price and C. M. Standwood for circuit clerk will be very close," he added.

News comes from Casey that a son of ex-Senator J. C. Lay had both legs crushed by a falling tree.

J. C. MCCLARY had on exhibition at his store this week a large wild goose that he killed on Barrow's pond.

THE first snow of the season, which came down furiously for a while, fell this morning and it is cold as Christmas.

J. S. HUNDLEY tells us that it was Joe Goode and not he, who sold the place to Mrs. Barnett mentioned in our last.

A VOTE for North is a vote for Joe Blackburn for U. S. Senator, a democrat who never flickers and one who has thrown his whole soul into this campaign.

SAM JONES will lecture only on the night of the 13th and the admission will be 50 and 75c, the latter for reserved seats to be had at McRoberts' drug store.

THE man who thinks the L. & N. can make its employees vote solidly for Taylor is reckoning without his host. A number have told us that they will mark under the rooster, if it loses their job for them.

IT isn't too late yet to change your mind if you have contemplated voting against the democratic ticket. Ought you go back on the old party that has been your home so long? Think seriously about it.

20 TO 1.—Mr. M. F. Elzin tells us that of the 21 members of the new Maccabee lodge at Waynesburg 20 are red hot Goebel democrats, while only one is a republican. Of course the lodge will be a success.

THERE has been no charge by the republicans here that the officers for the election are not good men on both sides. The list gives general satisfaction and there will be a free ballot and a fair count here as elsewhere.

IT is said that certain white republicans are advising Negroes to go to the polls armed, so as to assert their rights. Not a right will be denied any one, but the cowards who gave the advice are plotting to get somebody killed.

NO TAKERS.—Mr. A. J. Langston, an L. & N. employe at Newport, tells us that a Covington man has for the past week offered bets of 10 to 1 on Goebel, but has found no takers. He says that the thing is almost altogether one way in this city.

"If I had a 19 year old boy, who couldn't make a better speech than Taylor did, I'd take him from school, confident that sending him would be a waste of time and money," said a democrat after listening to Hog-jaw Taylor's hog wash.

TAYLOR said in his speech that "I will be the next governor, there is no doubt of that. But thank, God, there is doubt of that." Kentucky's most inveterate enemy could not wish her greater harm than such an ignoramus should be its chief executive officer.

THE preacher politician usually makes a mess of it and Eld. J. S. Sweeney, who thinks he is running for auditor on the republican ticket, is no exception. A small crowd composed mostly of Negroes, heard him here Tuesday night and the consensus of the democrats present is that it was the poorest speech of the campaign.

THE christian endeavor society of Hustonville will give a "Poverty Party" at Wheeler's Emporium, on the evening of the 16th. Admission: Tenne pennies for ye great and tall, Five pennies for ye wee and small. A small fee we will assess, To those who come in costly dress, read the invitations we printed yesterday.

GOCH.—Mrs. Cicero C. Goch died at her home at Waynesburg Tuesday afternoon of typhoid fever. She was a daughter of Squire E. B. Caldwell, Jr., and was a most excellent christian lady. She had been married only about two years and no children survive, but a husband is left to mourn the loss of a true and loving helpmeet. After services by Rev. Ira Partin Wednesday afternoon the remains were laid to rest at Eubanks.

A CORRESPONDENT at Mt. Salem says that Mr. Peter M. McRoberts occupied the pulpit at the African church near there and told his sable hearers what awful things will happen should democracy be successful in the approaching election. Mr. McRoberts is a better preacher than he is a politician, but he oughtn't to fool the poor Negro that way. Democracy will be successful and every Negro will have his rights and democrats, upon whom they nearly all have to depend, will continue to pay them good wages.

No advance on our enormous line of underwear for men, women and children. Severance & Sons.

SAM JONES is one of the most popular lecturers on the platform. He never fails to please. Beazley & Menefee have engaged him for Nov. 13 and as usual he will doubtless draw a full house.

FOR GOEBEL.—Mr. W. D. Oldham telephoned us from Richmond yesterday that Rev. W. S. Grinstead had written his son, Gilbert, that if he could reach home in time he will vote for Goebel. He has been voting the prohibition ticket.

DEATH.—Fred Johnson, son of Postmaster J. L. Johnson, of Kingsville, died yesterday morning from the effects of a strid he received several weeks ago, aged 16, and his remains will be interred in the cemetery at Pleasant Point at 2 o'clock this evening. He was a splendid boy.

OF Russell's Comedians, to appear at Walton's Opera House, Thursday night, 9th, the Greensburg, Pa. Press says: They fulfilled every expectation of local theatre goers on Wednesday night and presented an up-to-date program of minstrelsy and vaudeville. The entire aggregation was made up of stars. The opening act was given to black face comedy. The ballad singing of Horace J. Greeley, Harry Boyd and P. H. O'Brien was excellent, and Greensburgers have never heard a better interlocutor than Ed. C. Sampson. Every turn in the olio was appreciated. The St. Clair sisters introduced a swell case walk, and their travesty on the new results was received uproariously. Hubbard and Lathrop created a furore in their musical sketch.

CLELAND.—Wm. E. Cleland, father of Mrs. A. G. Eastland, of this place, died Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. P. Eastland, in Boyle, aged 75. The funeral occurred yesterday at New Providence church, in Mercer, Revs. Hunter and Taylor conducting the services. The Advocate says he was the youngest son of the noted pioneer preacher, Dr. Thomas H. Cleland, who was for 40 years pastor of the old Providence church. Mr. Cleland was the most of his life engaged in farming, but was an active man in affairs and one who was looked up to by his neighbors. For two terms he was sheriff of his native county of Mercer and received other marks of the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens. He was a man of unusual vigor and was in good health until within a short time ago, when the infirmities incident to old age crowded upon him thick and fast and his decline was rapid, in spite of the tender care given him by devoted children. Of the original family only one survives, his sister, Mrs. Mary Crisler, of Louisville, herself 81 years old. Mr. Cleland leaves a widow and 11 children, there having been but one other death—that of an infant—in his family in the 49 years of his married life. The widow, now robbed of a kind and loving husband, after nearly a half century of happy wedlock, was Miss Louise McClannahan, of Fayette county. The children live in different places, those nearest Danville being Mrs. Eastland and Miss Rose Cleland. Hundreds of friends of the family will extend the sincerest sympathy to the bereaved, who have the consolation of knowing that their husband and father was ready and waiting for the summons, assured of a rich reward for a well spent life.

GOEBEL.—An I. J. reporter had the pleasure of hearing Senator William Goebel speak at Lebanon and Springfield Tuesday afternoon and evening and in each town he addressed acres of people. At Lebanon he spoke from a stand back of the court-house and a larger and more enthusiastic crowd never gathered in that good little city. The Senator was in fine voice and his speech of two hours was listened to with almost remarkable attention. Three preachers, one of them Rev. A. S. Moffett, formerly of this place, occupied seats in the stand and applauded the many good things Mr. Goebel said. When the Senator corrected the report concerning ex-Gov. J. Proctor Knott's opposition to the democratic ticket, Cashier Joe Knott, a close relative of the ex-governor, came to the front and told of the falsity of the charge. Both of the Knotts mentioned are very warm for Mr. Goebel and his splendid ticket and are men of no little influence. It took the next governor just 30 minutes to get to his hotel from the court-house, a distance of 2 1/2 squares, so anxious were the people to shake his hand and pledge their support. At the hotel hundreds called to see the distinguished gentleman. The Senator drove over from Campbellville to Lebanon and was met several miles outside of the city by some 400 or 500 ladies and gentlemen on horseback, 60-odd of whom rode white horses. It was the same old story at Springfield. A torch light procession of some 300 met Mr. Goebel a mile or so outside of town and gave him a most hearty welcome. Fully 3,000 heard his speech there and men yelled themselves hoarse in their enthusiasm. Judge Sims and Senator C. C. McChord made a short talk each, after which the sturdy democrats of Washington county went to their homes more determined than ever to elect the ticket under the rooster next Tuesday.

THE TAYLOR HIPPODROME.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE MAKES A SPECTACLE OF HIMSELF.

FALSEHOODS USED FOR ARGUMENTS AND VULGARITY PALMED OFF FOR WIT.

THE WORST SPEECH THAT EVER HAPPENED.

The special bearing the Taylor-Wilson aggregation was half an hour or so late, but the Negro band and the Negro crowd, together with a few whites waited patiently at the depot till its arrival and then the worthies were escorted to the stand in the court house yard, where possibly 500 people, for the most part colored, some white republicans and a number of curious democrats, had gathered to see the show. Mr. P. M. McRoberts introduced Taylor, who spoke for over an hour and made the most nonsensical, idiotic and puerile speech ever delivered by any one, not a fit subject for a feeble minded institute. Looking like a monkey and acting like one, he lighted into the election law, the Louisville convention and the Chinn school book bill, saying of the latter that the name Chinn ought to kill it if nothing else did. He was very sweet on the Brownies, but so few of them were present that he failed to get a response. Of the L. & N. and corporations in general, he was highly complimentary and made many statements which were absolutely without the semblance of truth. He went for the last democratic administration and eulogized Bradley's, and claimed that when the democrats went out of power they left not a cent in the treasury, which now had money to burn. He apologized for making this last statement as he was afraid if the Goebellites found out there was money on hand they would redouble their efforts. Considering that ladies were present, some of his anecdotes were decidedly out of taste, but in full keeping with a speech that was thoroughly disgusting from start to finish.

Though the tax rate has been raised 10 cents on the $100 since the republicans went into power, Taylor persisted in saying it was only 42c. Was he honestly mistaken or simply lying?

"They say," said Taylor, "that the Courier Journal sold out to Hanna in 1896. That may or may not be true but its support of the democratic ticket now, looks mighty like it has sold out again in order to get a hand in the so-called cheap books for the children of Kentucky." And then his mongrel audience on the cue from the "leaders" cheered lustily.

The Hon. A. E. Willson, of Louisville, spoke next and as he is of more gentle birth and breeding, his speech was a fair one from his standpoint. How he can monkey in such a crowd, however, is a wonder and shows his eternal longing for the office he never gets. After he had finished, the bands began to play, the black line of marchers formed, the speakers were escorted back to their train and all was over except a bad taste in the mouths of the republicans, who had expected better things, and a sort of jubilation in every democratic heart, that the blow-out had proved so utter and so dismal a failure.

The great hippodrome has come and gone and the rats are now kicking themselves over what a failure it was. But for democrats and Negroes, Taylor and his crowd would have had precious few to hear them. It was the worst effort we ever knew and Gen. Taylor is the most disgusting speaker as well as the most uncouth looking creature who was ever honored for a high office, even by republicans. His nickname "Hogjaw" corresponded fully with his speech, for it was worse than hog wash.

After the industrious advertising given the blow-out, the crowd was even disappointing to democrats. There were very few white republicans and Negroes from the country, the crowd being largely made up of Macksvillians and other suburban places.

Prof. Cheismann's band accompanied the party and made good music. A majority of the handsome young fellows are democrats, who were out for the fun and money there is in it. They told us Taylor got a frost at most of the mountain towns.

The lying correspondent of the Louisville Commercial says that 3,000 to 5,000 people greeted Taylor at Stanford, when 500 is a big estimate.

The Bradley-Worthington special is due this afternoon and those who have enough intellect to appreciate the difference will see how sharply the line between a gentleman and a jackass is drawn, when they compare the efforts of Gov. Bradley and the man with the hogjaw.

NO INSPECTORS.—The court of appeals overruled Judge Hodge's opinion granting the Brownies the right of an inspector at the polls.

NOTICE.—Pay your city taxes to L. R. Hughes. After Nov. 1st. 6 per cent will be added and collections enforced. O. J. Newland, city marshal.

ELECTION bulletins from all States, where elections will be held, will be received in the passenger depot Tuesday night. A small admission fee will be charged. The telegraph company wanted $50 for running a loop in the Opera House.
